

Fur babies

Whether you are a first time fur parent or adding to your little family, it's a good idea to be financially prepared.

- Set aside an amount in your budget for your new pet:
 - one off or upfront costs
 - food
 - bedding
 - toiletries
 - grooming
 - training
 - vet bills
 - boarding/daycare
 - healthcare products
 - treats and toys.
- Consider pet insurance to avoid vet bill shock.
- Ensure your pet is considered in your Will.
